PERRY LEADS TECH WOMEN TO VICTORY

ARLINGTON, Texas — Lulu Perry tied her career-high with 21 points and Kelia Shelton and Whitney Frazier both scored in double figures to lead Louisiana Tech to a 78-62 win over Texas- Arlington Saturday night in Western Athletic Conference action at College Park Center.

Perry hit 6-of-7 field goals, including 3-of-3 from beyond the arc, and 6-of-7 free throws as the Benton star helped the Lady Techsters build an early lead and eventually push it out to as many as 31 before coasting to the win.

"I thought we did a lot of things well," said Tech head coach Teresa Weatherspoon. "I thought in the first half we really defended them well and made it tough. We executed on the offensive end for most of the game.

"However, we have to learn how to close games. We didn't do a good job of that down the stretch. We have to have better clock management. And we have to do a better job of finishing when we have the advantage."

Tech improved to 10-11 overall, 6-4 in WAC play while UT Arlington fell to 3-17 overall, 1-9 in league action.
