BPCC OPENS SEASON WITH TWO VICTORIES

The Bossier Parish Community College Cavaliers opened the 2012-13 basketball season with two victories in the Southern-Shreveport Classic.

The Cavaliers defeated Arkansas Baptist 88-73 Friday and Coahoma College of Mississippi 76-73 Saturday.

Justin Harris, a former Loyola standout, led the Cavs against Arkansas Baptist with 20 points. Ty'rell Winn added 18 and Dimitri Smith had 17.

Winn scored 22 to lead BPCC against Coahoma. Former Bossier star Lyndale James added 18 points, and Harris had 10.

The Cavs play their home opener Wednesday night against the NSU JV.

EX-BOSSIER STAR WEST SHINES IN NSU DEBUT

NATCHITOCHES — Freshman guard Jalan West, a former Bossier High star, poured in 26 points and had eight assists, while senior guard Shamir Davis added 19 points Friday night as Northwestern State opened its centennial season of basketball with its biggest scoring output since 1994 in a season-opening 118-77 romp over visiting East Texas Baptist at Prather Coliseum.

West, a 5-11 redshirt freshman who led Bossier to a state championship two years ago, sank 11-of-14 shots including 4- -of-7 on 3-pointers, and added five rebounds and three steals in a team-high 22 minutes. Hicks, a 6-7 forward, sank 7-of-8 shots.

"Our newcomers looked ready to go," said Demons coach Mike McConathy, beginning his 14th season as NSU's head coach. "I really like the combination we have in our backcourt with Shamir and Jalan. They made a lot of good decisions that got us a bunch of high percentage shots."

PERRY SCORES SEVEN IN LADY TECHSTERS DEBUT

Louisiana Tech freshman Lulu Perry, a former Benton star, scored seven points in her debut Saturday night in a 66-59 loss to Tulane in New Orleans.

Perry, who started at guard, was 2-of-6 from the field. All four of her misses were from 3-point range. She was 3-of-3 from the free throw line. Perry also had two rebounds, one assist and three turnovers in 25 minutes of playing time.
