Parkway swept the boys' and girls' team titles in the LSU Invitational cross country meet Saturday in Baton Rouge.

The Parkway boys scored 57 points to 74 for runner-up Ruston and 77 for third-place Byrd.

The Parkway girls scored 35 points to edge runner-up Ruston by three points. It was the Lady Panthers' second team title in as many meets.

Parkway junior Alison Ringle won the individual girls' title, covering the 5K Highland Road Park course in 19 minutes, 12.3 seconds. She finished about 1:25 in front of runner-up Adaiza Austin of Ruston. It was Ringle's second victory this season.

Three other Lady Panthers finished in the top 10 — Alayna Nevins (fifth, 20:54.3), Jayni Wilcher (sixth, 21:04.8) and Sara Funderburk (ninth, 21:37.7). Kaleigh Newman (21st, 23:25.7) was the Panthers' fifth scorer.

Parkway sophomore Hayden Kingfisher finished runner-up out of 137 competitors in the boys' division. He ran a 16:49.6. Lakeside's Enrique Soto won in 16:05.0.

Parkway's Taylor Bazo finished ninth in 17:40.9.

Other Panthers in the scoring were Lucas Moncla (12th, 17:51.7), Chance Vatovec (16th, 18:05.3) and Skylor Reese (18th, 18:16.8).

It was the first title of the season for the Parkway boys, who finished second in the Calvary Baptist Invitational.

The Parkway girls are ranked third in the state in LouisianaRunning.com's power rankings and the boys are ranked fifth.
