Written by Russell Hedges
Saturday, 09 February 2013 23:30 - Last Updated Saturday, 09 February 2013 23:36

The Louisiana New Tech at Plain Dealing Lady Lions completed a perfect run through District 1-1A with a 51-34 victory over host Haynesville Friday.
The two-time defending state champions improved to 13-8 overall and 6-0 in district.
Elsewhere, the Bossier Lady Kats claimed the runner-up spot in District 1-3A with a 47-38 victory over Green Oaks at Green Oaks.
In District 1-5A, Airline fell to district champ Southwood, the No. 1 ranked team in the state, 66-30, Haughton lost to Captain Shreve 37-35 and Parkway fell to Byrd 67-43.
In District 1-4A, Benton dropped a 46-34 decision to champion Huntington.
At Haynesville, Dennisha Chambers tossed in 31 points to lead the Lady Lions, who built a 32-6 halftime lead.
At Green Oaks, Bossier's Deniera McGlothan had a double-double with 14 points and 20 rebounds.
Laschae Gadson hit three 3-pointers and scored 11 points. Khobi McDaniel had nine rebounds.
At Huntington, Benton trailed by just one at the half and was still within five going into the fourth quarter.
Gabby Jackson and Madi Sessions led the Lady Tigers with 13 points apiece.
Benton (15-11, 5-4) hosts Woodlawn tonight in a make-up game.
The Lady Tigers can tie Fair Park for second in the district with a victory.
Regardless of the outcome, Benton is still in a good position to receive a wild-card playoff berth.
At Shreve, Haughton let a nine-point lead slip away in the second half. The Lady Gators scored the game-winner with 12 seconds left.
Brittany Robinett led the Lady Bucs with 15 points.
Haughton (17-12, 3-6) closes the regular season Tuesday against Southwood. The Lady Bucs are on the bubble as far as receiving a wild-card playoff berth.
At Southwood, Madison Rowland scored nine points and Nikki Bryant added seven to lead Airline (11-17, 3-6).
The Lady Cowboys, a heavy favorite to win the state title, improved to 27-1 and 9-0.
Airline closes the season Tuesday at home against Byrd.
At Byrd, Halle Washington scored 21 points but Parkway couldn't overcome a slow start.
The Lady Panthers (4-20, 3-6) close the season Tuesday at home against Captain Shreve.