Name: Imunique Bryant
School/Class: Airline High School/ 12th
Parents: Angela and Sylvester Lyles
Primary sport: Basketball
How did you get started? Tried out for middle school team and made it.
How long have you played? 6 years.
What kind of awards/camps/etc., have you received or participated in? Hall of Hoops camp, Theresa Weatherspoon Camp, City Champs in 7th and 8th (Ridgewood).
What kind of pre-event routine do you have? Listen to music to get mind focused on game and shoot as much as possible.
What makes you stand out as an athlete? Athleticism, taller, quick and built strong.
What individual and team goals did you set for yourself this season? Try and be a good leader for my team and help team to play to our full potential.
What do you enjoy most about your sport? Everything, basketball court is where I can be myself.
Has anyone inspired you to achieve your goals? Who and what did they do? My mom has pushed me since I can remember because she saw the potential I had. Without her I would not be where I am today.
What are your hobbies/interests? Playing basketball, listening to music, playing the piano and being with family.
What are your future plans? To hopefully go to a four year university and major in sports medicine and become an athletic trainer or physical therapy. I want to play college basketball as well.