Written by Russell Hedges
Friday, 01 March 2013 00:37 -

Danielle Cruickshank and Cheyenne Rogers led the Parkway Lady Panthers to an 8-2 District 1-5A softball victory over the Airline Lady Vikings Tuesday at Airline.
Elsewhere in 1-5A, defending champion Haughton improved to 2-0 with a 10-0 victory at Southwood.
Benton opened District 1-4A play with a 15-0 rout of Minden at Benton.
At Airline, Cruickshank went 3-for-4 with a triple, two doubles and four RBIs.
Rogers went 2-for-3 with a double. She went 6 2-3 innings on the mound, allowing five hits and striking out four.
Carol Cash and Brooke Stigall had doubles for Parkway (5-2, 1-1). Stigall had two RBIs as did Haydn Parker.
Lindsay Fronzaglio went 3-for-3 with a double to lead Airline, which dropped to 1-1 in district. Mary Macaulay had a triple.
At Haughton, Anna Dies pitched a two-inning five-hitter with eight strikeouts for the Lady Bucs, who have won five straight. She also had two doubles and four RBIs.
Lani Woods and Brooke Payton also had doubles.
At Benton, the Lady Tigers scored 13 runs in the third inning to end the game via the 15-run mercy rule.
Gabby Kespelher, Savannah Collo, Yancey Cox and Alyssa Malone had two hits apiece for the Lady Tigers (6-1). Malone had four RBIs, while Kespelher and Collo had two apiece.
Chelsea Rangel had a double and scored three runs. She also allowed just two hits in three innings on the mound.